

Morgan Stanley Supports Volunteer's Efforts at Nutley Family Service Bureau

Morgan Stanley contributed $6,000 to the Nutley Family Service Bureau, recognizing the volunteering efforts of Karen Rozansky, a supervisory analyst at the firm's New York City headquarters. This contribution, which will help with general operating expenses, is from the Morgan Stanley Foundation and represents support from all of the business units within Morgan Stanley, including Van Kampen Investments.

This is the sixth time that Morgan Stanley has recognized Karen's volunteering efforts. As Vice President of the Nutley Family Service Bureau, Karen is involved in planning and fundraising. As a member of the Bureau's Women's Auxiliary, Karen is a board member and volunteers at the Thrift Shop, an important on-going entity whose proceeds benefit the Bureau. Karen said, "The fact that Morgan Stanley rewards my efforts outside of the workplace is a wonderful benefit...Morgan Stanley encourages volunteerism. Volunteering makes you feel good. Knowing that the Bureau is helping so many people in our community is great, especially in these difficult times."

The Nutley Family Service Bureau is a unique town-based agency that helps individuals who are in need. The NFSB depends on donations and monies generated by its fundraising efforts. You can learn more about the Bureau by visiting its website at www.nutleyfamily.com. The Bureau is located at 155 Chestnut Street, and the Thrift Shop is at 172 Chestnut Street.

Pictured here are (left to right), Carol LoCurcio, Secretary; Linda Grossman, Treasurer; Erin Thompson, First Vice President; Neil Henning, President; and Karen Rozansky, Vice President.

